

Ahi Fever 2009

The premier fishing tournament on the Wai'anae Coast

FATHER'S DAY WEEKEND - JUNE 20 & 21, 2009

The Wai'anae Boat Fishing Club is proud to announce that the Ahi Fever Fishing Tournament will again take place this year on Father's Day weekend, June 20 & 21, at the Wai'anae Boat Harbor.

As an important member of our fishing community, we would again like to ask for your help in making this event the grand success it has been in the past.

Please help us by supporting the fishing tournament this year. We are requesting donations of cash or prize merchandise. Your name and business logo/picture will be featured in our high quality souvenir booklet which will be given out free to all tournament participants, folks who attend the event and at selected locations around O'ahu.

All advertisers and prize donors will be listed on our sponsor list, which will be printed in the souvenir booklet and posted on our internet web site. All sponsors will be entitled to display two banners during the tournament and festivities within the harbor area.

We are committed to satisfying, to our best ability, all sponsors and donors who choose to get involved in this fun-filled, exciting tournament event. We will do our best to fulfill any special requests our sponsors or donors may have.

A tournament representative will be contacting you soon to see if you can help us make Ahi Fever 2009 another great success for everyone in our community and throughout the state of Hawai'i.

Mahalo,
